

#40 Roller Chain Link Kit

This kit contains 2 connecting links and 2 offset links, for joining open chain together into closed loops. Connecting links are more commonly used, offset links are used to create a chain with an odd number of links. For more information on how to use the master links check the chain guides in the resources section.

Product Specifications

Physical Properties

Sprocket Series # 40