

1/8" Mounting Nut for Probe Thermocouples

This stainless steel mounting nut is designed to be used with a probe thermocouple. See the “Compatible Products” tab for a list of thermocouples. Just slide the pieces on and tighten to attach. Once it’s secured, you can mount it to a panel or inside of an enclosure with a simple 1/8” nut and washer.

Comes packaged with

- One mounting sleeve

Product Specifications

Physical Properties

|                   |                 |
|-------------------|-----------------|
| Material          | Stainless Steel |
| Screw Thread Size | 1/8"            |
| Inner Diameter    | 3.2 mm          |

